West Texas Success Will Connect Thousands to Job Opportunities Across the Region

Abilene, Texas — Workforce Solutions of West Central Texas will host West Texas Success—One Day. Two Events. on Thursday, June 25, 2020 to help West Central Texans get back to work amid the challenges presented by COVID-19. Individuals must register for the dual events separately and can choose to attend one or both as needed.

The West Texas Success—Right Jobs. Right Now. virtual job fair will connect multiple employers and thousands of West Central Texans looking for jobs in a single online space. The virtual job fair will run from 9:00AM to 9:00PM on June 25th and is accessible from any computer, tablet, or mobile device. There is no cost for job seekers or employers to participate and the event is open to the public. Employers will be available to accept resumes and live chat until 5:00PM.

West Texas Success—Starting the Search will be held at the Abilene Convention Center (1100 N 6th Street, Abilene, Texas 79601). This event provides staff assistance and access to computer equipment for those who need it to register in the WorkInTexas.com system. When the Texas Workforce Commission reinstates job search requirements, all individuals receiving unemployment benefits will have to register with the statewide job search engine WorkInTexas.com and complete weekly work searches. Workforce Solutions of West Central Texas encourages benefit recipients to “beat the rush” and register now. Sessions will be offered at 9:00AM, 11:00AM, 2:00PM, 4:00PM, and 6:00PM. Participants can also join the Right Jobs. Right Now. virtual job fair portion on-site.

Visit wfswct.org for event details and registration or call (325) 795-4200.
