Eastland, Texas — Workforce Solutions of West Central Texas will host an open house on Thursday, September 24, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. to celebrate the grand opening of the Eastland Workforce Center. The new office location at 112 S. Seaman Street, Eastland, TX 76448, is in partnership with Eastland Economic Development, Inc. to expand employment service options for employers, job seekers, and families in the eastern part of the West Central Texas region. The Eastland Chamber of Commerce will assist with a ribbon cutting ceremony. The open house will include light refreshments and special remarks from Judge Fields, Eastland County, Tom Bailey, Eastland Economic Development, Inc. and Mary Ross, Workforce Solutions of West Central Texas.

“Opening the Eastland Workforce Center in downtown Eastland is a great opportunity for Eastland County citizens looking for employment, a resource for employers looking for people that are ready to go to work, and for job-training opportunities to build a skill set that provides career-ready employees,” said Eastland County Judge Rex Fields. “The opening of this new Workforce Center in Eastland is a collaborative effort between Eastland Economic Development, Eastland Chamber of Commerce, and Workforce Solutions of West Central Texas. I am very proud of all of the partners that made this new center a reality.”
