Hiring Red, White, and You! Job Fair is Free and Open to the Public on Thursday, November 4th

Abilene, Texas — Workforce Solutions of West Central Texas, in partnership with the Texas Workforce Commission and Texas Veterans Commission, will host the 10th Annual Hiring Red, White, & You! Job Fair on Thursday, November 4, 2021 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Taylor County Expo Center in the Display Building with a virtual option to attend and visit with select employers. This event is free and open to the public with a priority access period for current and prior military, their spouses, and family members from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. The Hiring Red, White, & You! Job fair places an emphasis on hiring former military personnel, who are equipped with countless skills and unique strengths from their time serving in the armed forces.

With nearly 70 employers from Abilene, Brownwood, Snyder, Sweetwater, and surrounding communities participating, this is also an excellent opportunity for job seekers of all skill levels, talents and experience to explore available careers. Businesses in healthcare, manufacturing, public safety, finance, communications, education, customer service, and more will be represented with open positions to fill. Event registration and a full list of participating employers with the jobs they will be hiring for are available at www.wfswct.org/hrwy.

Media representatives are invited to attend the event for an opening ceremony with special remarks from Taylor County Judge Downing Bolls beginning at 9:45am. For more information on the Hiring Red, White, & You! Job Fair, please contact Robert Puls, Director of Business Services, at Robert.Puls@workforcesystem.org or (325) 795-4302.
